

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Gerald Grimmeyer

Faculty

Gerald Grimmeyer grew up going to Holy Spirit parish in Morris Heights in the Bronx. He attended All Hallows High School and graduated in 1953. From there he attended Iona College and graduated in 1957.

His first teaching position was at Sacred Heart Parish in High Bridge from 1957-1959.

Having attended All Hallows and Iona College, it was only fitting that Mr. Grimmeyer would, in the fall of 1959, come to teach at Power Memorial Academy. Over the next 25 years he taught Social Studies, A.P. European History, English and French, to name a few subjects, but is best remembered for developing and teaching his Modern Russian History course. After Power closed its' doors in 1984, Mr. Grimmeyer returned to his roots to teach, and eventually become the first lay principal, at All Hallows High School. But he was always very proud of his longevity at Power...25 years until the school closed.

Mr. Grimmeyer was inducted into the All Hallows High School Hall of Fame in 1999.

He was married to the former Janice Moll and they raised 6 children. Gerald, Jeannie (deceased), Kathy, Robert (deceased), Thomas and John. They have four grandchildren. Jessalyn, Thomas, Ryan and Sean

Lived in Country Village, near Jersey City until his death in 2000.

From his son Gerald: Dad was a Yankee fan growing up in the Bronx, a great handyman and gardener with beautiful gardens in the front and back yards...he had a regular green thumb.

From a teaching colleague: an intelligent, classy guy...the epitome of what a teacher should look and sound like...a gentleman.
